Meeting Rules:

- Follow the meeting rules and moderator instructions at all times. If instructions are not followed, you will be warned by being muted. If instructions are not followed beyond the warning, then you will be removed from the meeting.
- During Q&A sessions, members will be allowed one question/statement with no opportunity for follow up or response. This will allow sufficient time for many people to have their questions addressed.
 - If you would like to ask a question, raise your hand and we will call on you. You may raise your hand by clicking “Participants” at the bottom of the screen. Then click “Raise hand.”
 - All communications must remain professional and respectful.
 - NOMA meetings address community issues, not personal grievances or complaints.
- Maximum 100 attendees

Agenda:

Meet Santa Monica City Council's newest member: Kristin McCowan

There will be a discussion about the City of Santa Monica's economic recovery plan with City staff Anuj Gupta, Peter James, and Jennifer Taylor. As a part of this discussion, the Chair of the Montana Avenue Merchant's Association will participate. The resident representative to the Montana Avenue Merchant's Association Albin Gielicz, has been invited.

Montana Avenue Merchant's Association is gathering public input on the expansion of Parklets along Montana Avenue for restaurants and other business use. The Parklet program is one way our city is trying to help local merchants survive the devastating economic impacts of the global pandemic.
