

North of Montana Association
Board of Directors
Disclosure Statement

At the time of nomination to the North of Montana Association (NOMA) board of directors and annually thereafter (at the anniversary of board appointment) or when a change arises, each board member shall disclose orally or in writing to the NOMA board of directors the following:

1. Any direct or indirect financial interest in any matter being considered or likely to be considered by appointees, employees or elected officials of the City of Santa Monica, excluding matters involving a personal residence, and
2. His/her other current board memberships, both for-profit and charitable.

Before the NOMA board of directors votes on a matter, any board member who has a conflict of interest because of a financial interest in the matter or a board membership in another organization which would present a conflict, shall recuse him/herself from voting.

I have read the above statement relating to conflicts of interest and understand and support its intent.

To the best of my knowledge: (Check one of the following)

- I have nothing to disclose at this time.
- I will disclose potential conflicts of interest as directed by the instructions concerning disclosure.

I agree to comply with the foregoing.
